'Honoring the Mothers'

Honoring the Mothers #1

Marriage is a coming together of two lives, and a celebration of the love of two people. But it is more. The love that <Bride> and <Groom> feel for one another is the flowering of a seed their parents planted in their hearts years ago. As they embrace one another in their love, so do they embrace the families, which have been brought together on this happy occasion. As a token of their love for their families, <Bride> and <Groom> would like to offer these symbols of eternal love, these roses, to their mothers.

Honoring the Mothers #2

This wedding is also a celebration of family. It is the blending of two families, separate up to this moment, but united from this day forward -- blending their different traditions, strengthening the family tree. Parents plant so that their children may harvest.

<Bride> and <Groom> wish to honor this blending of the families by presenting a rose to their mothers -- to thank their parents for the many selfless sacrifices they have made and for their unconditional love so freely given to their children.

(Bride and Groom exchange hugs with her parents and present a rose to her mother then exchange hugs with his parents and present a rose to his mother.)
